It was because of humanity's corruption that God was taken from His rest, and it was also because of the archangel's rebellion that God was taken from His rest. If God does not defeat Satan and save humanity, which has been corrupted, God will never again be able to enter into rest. As man lacks rest, so does God.

Election refers to God's choosing whom to save. It is unconditional in that there is no condition man must meet before God chooses to save him. Man is dead in trespasses and sins. So there is no condition he can meet before God chooses to save him from his deadness. We are not saying that final salvation is unconditional. It is not.

God decided at a prior time to bring you to belief, to open your eyes, and to give you repentance. And then I would turn to Ephesians 1:4: "Even as he chose [i.e., elected] us in him before the foundation of the world." God decided to save you before he actually did it. He is not whimsical. He doesn't get taken off guard.

You shouldn't sit around pondering why God saved you instead of your non-believing friends, you should realize that God saved you for the sake of your non-believing friends. He chose you because he wants to choose others. "I chose you," Jesus said, "to go and bear fruit" (John 15:16). I know that might make your head hurt.

It was the image of God that separated mankind from all other living creatures. That "living soul" was immortal, meant to last forever. God had chosen to create a being so like Him that the man could reason, reflect, intuit, and choose his own paths. Without that right to choose, human beings would not bear God's image (see Genesis 1:27). God respects what He has created to such an extent that He will not allow even His overwhelming love to violate our free will.

People are not saved because they take the initiative or chose to know God [Eph 2:8-9]. However, God's decision not to save all people has to do with his character or nature. The Bible makes it clear that not only is God good, loving, merciful and kind [Ex 34:6-7a] but he is also just, righteous and holy.

Meaning, God does not choose to save any of us because we are in any way better than those who He does not choose to save. God in His infinite wisdom has decided to extend His saving grace to some and the question that is obviously begged by this reality is "If God didn't save me because of anything in me, if it isn't because I'm in anyway better than my neighbor, then why did God choose to save me and not my neighbor?".
