Lois Lenski had a wonderful way of drawing the essentials to tell a story. This is a charming board book for toddlers. My grandson, who adores cars, trains, and anything that can go "vrrrrm" loves it. When he is older, I hope he will enjoy "Prairie School" and the sensitively written true story of Molly Jamison, "Indian Captive".

Premise/plot: Pilot Small stars in Lois Lenski's The Little Airplane, a picture book originally published in 1938. While there was something simplistic about Cowboy Small and the Little Sailboat, I found this one to be technical and complex. It offers a perhaps dated but nonetheless detailed look at piloting a small aircraft.
